

Youth and Family Therapist

This is a position for a Master's level Professional Counselor or Social Worker, fully licensed in the State of Michigan (LMSW, LPC), to work with youth and their families (ages 6 to 16). Ability to work with younger children is a special need at this time. Knowledge and experience with Motivational Interviewing and Trauma-Informed treatment preferred. The Independent Contractor develops his or her own schedule and has control over the size of his or her caseload (minimum 10 clients). Other areas of need are those that treat depression, anxiety, self-harm, and survivors of trauma. Having experience with assessment and possessing strong documentation skills is preferred. To apply send a resume and cover letter to parkside@parksideforfamilies.com.

Required:
